NEW SUBJECTS IN TE MARAUTANGA O AOTEAROA

Have your say on the proposed NCEA Subjects

As part of the NCEA Change Programme, the Ministry of Education is proposing changes to Te Marautanga o Aotearoa. These proposed subjects are not final and we welcome your feedback.

What are the proposed new subjects for Te Marautanga o Aotearoa?

From Level 1:

Te Reo Pākehā (in Te Reo Pākehā)

In Te Reo Pākehā, ākonga study English as a second language through a distinctly te ao Māori perspective, gaining the skills required to navigate and communicate confidently and competently in te ao Pākehā.

From Level 2:

Mau Rākau (in Ngā Toi)

In Mau Rākau, ākonga learn about the history, art, and practice of Māori and other indigenous people's weaponry, gaining skills of discipline and leadership, and growing understanding of the human and spiritual dynamics of challenges.

Toi Whakairo (in Ngā Toi)

In Toi Whakairo, ākonga learn about the history, art and practice of Māori and other indigenous carving, gaining appreciation for the rich tikanga and whakapapa of artistry.

Tauhokohoko (in Tikanga ā-Iwi)

In Tauhokohoko, ākonga learn the breadth of financial literacy, including how to apply this knowledge to everyday modern situations and the different types of transactions used by tribes in establishing economies.

Te Hītori o Aotearoa (in Tikanga ā-Iwi)

In Te Hītori o Aotearoa, ākonga examine mātauranga Māori inherent within Māori tribal histories of Aotearoa, premised on historical narratives of whānau, hapū and iwi.

Hangarau Matihiko (in Hangarau)

In Hangarau Matihiko, ākonga learn to confidently draw on skills and knowledge from te ao Māori to use in the technologies and digital designs of today.

Hākinakina (in Hauora)

In Hākinakina, ākonga learn the history and practice of Māori sport and competition, gaining the skills of leadership, mahi tahi, and self-esteem in an explicitly ao Māori setting.
