Q&A Session - Pending

Once you have opened the session (either in your browser or by downloading the application), you will be presented with a view. While waiting for the day to start there is a holding screen with some helpful links and documents:

Q&A Session - Live

Once the Q&A session has started, the session will update to show you the Q&A function. In order to ask your question, type it into the box at the bottom and press enter. You will be able to see the questions from other participants and the answers. You may receive private messages in response to your questions if clarification is required, otherwise responses will be public.
